BRIGHAM CITY NOTES

Special to The Tribune.

BRIGHAM CITY, Oct. 11.—George Losce, who has made his home in Nevada for a number of years past, has returned to this city where he will make his home in the future. Mr. Losce has purchased the property formerly belonging to Ross, located on South Main street. Mr. Losce has accepted a position with R. Kahner as a clerk in his cigar store on Forest street.

The case of O. Houghton vs. Annie C. Houghton, in which the plaintiff asked for a divorce, was concluded last week in favor of the plaintiff. Mrs. Houghton left her husband at Promontory about five months ago in company with one J. L. W. of Provo. It is alleged that Mrs. Houghton came to this city, according to the complaint. Mr. Houghton instituted divorce proceedings against his wife with unfriendliness, which she contested. In the decree of divorce there was a provision for a distribution of the property. Mr. Houghton, who is a well-to-do man, receives a portion.

The Globe theater has changed hands. The theater formerly owned by Messrs. Norman and Edgar Stark of this city, who have also been operating picture theaters in Logan and Ogden for a number of years past. The purchasers of the Globe are James G. Ellis and father, of Ogden.

MURRAY NEWS

Special to The Tribune.

MURRAY, Oct. 11.—Despite the fact that there are already two tickets in the field here, namely the Independent and Tribune, the local Republicans are also entering and dividing honors with the two rival parties. This week the first ward in regard to drawing up a ticket will begin when Charles Leggett will call a meeting for the purpose of naming a ticket. Ballots will be held here very shortly by the other two parties to boost the desirable qualities of their respective candidates.

The school work at Lund school will begin today at the school in the vicinity of Murray. At present there are about twelve pupils at the school. There have been recently some families having been recently sent to their homes. Superintendent Welling will preside over the school from this winter. The harvest at the school has been something out of the ordinary, considering this to be the school's first attempt to produce a crop of any size.

Considerable routine business will be transacted by the Murray city council when it meets in regular session at the council chambers Tuesday evening. The main feature of the evening will be the naming of the duties for the coming year. This subject has been brought up before, but met with instant defeat. What the outcome will be is just now a matter of conjecture.

PROVO COURT NEWS

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, Oct. 11.—Loren Owens, Ed King and Lewis Le Roy were before Judge Noon today on charges of driving a ride on a Denver & Rio Grande train. They pleaded guilty and were sentenced to serve fifteen days in the county jail.

The July term of the district court of Utah county closed today and the October term was opened. The trial of the regular calendar will begin on Monday next, when the jury will be present.

E. E. Rindge & Co., of Chicago, Ill., has begun suit in the district court against R. E. Rupp to collect $226 and interest. On October 12, 1909, on a promissory note.

News of Kayville.

Special to The Tribune.

KAYVILLE, Oct. 11.—Perry E. Burnham, and associates, of Bonanza, are building a new pipe factory at Woods on the road for the purpose of manufacturing iron pipe. The building and machinery are to cost about $2000 and will give employment of about twenty men.

The harvesting and packing of winter apples commenced in Davis county last week. The crop is very good this year. George Freestone, of Clearfield, and Samuel Beckham of Centerville, both had considerable destruction of their fruit by American citizens with County Clerk Hyman O. Pack last week.

Mrs. Elias Adams, who has been very ill with typhoid fever, is slowly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Naylor and children of Thatcher, Arizona, are spending a month in Davis county, visiting with relatives.

RAILWAY EXTENSION NEARING COMPLETION

Ogden and Plain City Soon to Be Connected by Rail.

Special to The Tribune.

OCTOBER 11.—The opening of the extension of the Ogden Rapid Transit company between this city and Plain City will be a red-letter day in the history of the little town to the north. A committee, composed of John Maw, W. C. Carver, Thomas Jenkins and Thomas England, is at work here gathering a subscription for the purpose of defraying the expenses incident to a general justification which will be held at Plain City, October 12. The first of the first cars will be run over the new road.

The people of Plain City expect to hold a grand celebration and have invited people of Ogden to co-operate with them. The Plain City branch of the Rapid Transit company is now under construction. All that remains to be done before a regular schedule will be put in operation is the ballasting of a portion of the track.

The Rapid Transit company will complete the extension in ample time to handle this season's shipment of beets to the sugar factory in Ogden. This will mean a great saving of time, labor and expense, both to the beet growers and the owners of the sugar factory.

In addition to the freight accommodations which will be furnished by the road between Plain City and Ogden, the company will inaugurate a convenient passenger schedule when the road is opened.

SUPERINTENDENT BAILEY RETURNS FROM DENVER

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 11.—Superintendent Joseph Bailey of the Ogden Rapid Transit company has returned from Denver, where he attended the annual convention of the American Street and Interurban Railway association, of which he is a member.

Mr. Bailey says that some of the foremost street railway and interurban railroads in the nation were present and read excellent papers dealing with innovations of street railway traffic generally and the latest devices in operating equipment.

The convention was held in the mainmost auditorium which was erected over a year ago for the national Democratic convention. Among the interesting exhibits at the convention were several of the latest street railway cars, including President David Eccles of the Logan Rapid Transit company. This car is forty-six feet long and can carry 150 passengers. Several of these cars have been purchased by Mr. Eccles for the Logan line, which is now under construction.

Sacred Heart Academy Notes.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 11.—One of the most important events of the past week was the awarding of reports for September. These reports were received by the principal, Mr. J. L. W. of Provo, who distributed each month, and give the students and their parents an accurate account of the application and progress of the pupils.

Rev. P. M. Cushman presided over the assembly and presented a report of the school. He delivered a very instructive, friendly discourse, endeavoring to make the pupils realize the importance of their studies and their duties as students and as citizens.

The Globe theater has changed hands. The theater formerly owned by Messrs. Norman and Edgar Stark of this city, who have also been operating picture theaters in Logan and Ogden for a number of years past. The purchasers of the Globe are James G. Ellis and father, of Ogden.

A very welcome visitor to the academy was Mr. J. L. W. of Provo, who is a C. S. P. of New York City. This noted Paulist visited Salt Lake and the Junction City, representing the business and educational interests of the city.

Students of Sacred Heart academy, like many other visitors to the school, realized the importance of their studies and their duties as students and as citizens.

MORMON PROPHET IS ARRAIGNED BY PASTOR

Rev. Noble Strong Elderkin Declares Preaching Is Little Short of Blasphemy.

OGDEN CITY COUNCIL HAS A BUSY SESSION

City Engineer Ordered to Prepare Plans for Conduit; Other Matters.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 11.—Declaring that "to preach to a great host of intensely religious people here in Utah that real religion is a matter of faith in an ancient or modern prophet, be he Jesus or Joseph Smith, and nothing more, is little short of blasphemy," Rev. Noble Strong Elderkin, pastor of the Congregational church, took President Smith of the Mormon church to task before his congregation at the regular evening service last night.

Mr. Elderkin based his remarks upon the recent scathing rebuke delivered to him by Mr. Elderkin by President Smith, who said that the gospel preached on this occasion, "Pay your new rent, repeat the creed, honor the traffic by the street, Tuesday morning, is also the gospel of too many Gentile pulpits."

President Smith has fallen into the common error of imagining that everlasting life begins after death. Everlasting life is a present reality. It is not a future event," declared the speaker.

Suffering From Appendicitis. Special to The Tribune.

PARK CITY, Oct. 11.—Mrs. E. J. Nicholson, who has been suffering from appendicitis, was taken to the hospital today for an operation. The operation will probably be operated upon today.

BROKEN RAIL CAUSES WRECK AT EPHRAIM

Passengers for Salt Lake City Are Delayed, but No One Is Hurt.

Special to The Tribune.

EPHRAIM, Oct. 11.—There was a wreck on the Denver & Rio Grande at this place at 1:35 p. m. Monday. No one was injured, and several hours' delay the passengers were sent on to Salt Lake over the Sanpete Valley.

On inquiry at the local D. & R. G. office at 11:30 o'clock Monday night it was stated by the chief dispatcher that the wreck was due to a broken rail, that no cars were overturned and that no one was injured, nor was any property destroyed, and that the line would be open to traffic by 11:30 o'clock Monday night.

The wreck caused a delay of two hours and forty minutes at Ephraim, and because of slower running time with Salt Lake Valley engines the passengers arrived in Salt Lake three hours and ten minutes late at 9:15 p. m.

PRISONER MAKES AN ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 11.—A clever attempt to escape from the city jail was made by a prisoner, this afternoon. He succeeded in misleading several officers by telling them he had been arrested for drunkenness and had been taken to the jail by Officer Anderson, Patrolman Mohlman, Detective Tinsack and other officers, who assisted him in his escape. The prisoner, who is a well-known character in the city, was caught by Officer O'Neil, who is charged with attempting to rob a Japanese rooming house.

A rope was found in the prisoner's cell, to which he had intended tying the razor and hair and putting into another cell, occupied by a friend of O'Neil's. He is charged with attempting to rob a Japanese rooming house.

DETECTIVE ARRIVES WITH HIS PRISONER

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 11.—Detective James S. Tander arrived in Ogden this evening from Chicago with George L. Gutter, who is wanted here on a charge of $18,000 from Misses Hilda Ringdahl on September 8. Gutter was assisting the woman in moving her furniture and while her back was turned, he stole the money from a closet in the kitchen.

After the governor of Illinois had located the criminal, he was presented to the officer and just before the officer was preparing to take the train for the West, Detective Tander presented him with a writ of habeas corpus. After a few days' delay, however, the officer succeeded in locating the prisoner, who was wanted in Ogden and he was allowed to proceed with his prisoner.

The Democratic city convention has been called for Saturday, October 16, at 8 o'clock. The city election will be held Friday evening in the court house at which time delegates and alternates will be named.

LOGAN REPUBLICANS NAME CITY TICKET

Special to The Tribune.

LOGAN, Oct. 11.—The Republicans of this city held their convention tonight at the city hall, and named candidates for city offices in the field. They received the same dose the Democrats got on Saturday night, a severe dose of the law under the guise of prohibitionists, running their convention for them.

The church Republicans here desired the nomination of George W. Lundquist for mayor, but the church forces beat him out with John H. Anderson, a member of the state high council.

The vote was 34 to 20. The other nominees are as follows: Recorder, Mrs. Luella Wright, Justice, William Bringham, Treasurer, Mrs. E. Spande.

The platform simply contradicts some of the statements made in the Democratic platform and makes the same simple as to prohibition.

DISASTROUS FIRE OCCURS AT BEAVER

Studebaker's Branch Store Completely Demolished; Theater Also Destroyed.

OGDEN CITY COUNCIL HAS A BUSY SESSION

City Engineer Ordered to Prepare Plans for Conduit; Other Matters.

Special to The Tribune.

EPHRAIM, Oct. 11.—One of the largest and most destructive fires which has ever visited Beaver county was that of last night at Beaver City. The entire building of the Studebaker Bros., with twelve buggies and many implements of various kinds, the Isis theater, a most marked and a large uncompleted building were demolished. The loss is estimated at several thousands of dollars with but little insurance. The fire started about twelve o'clock and was discovered by one of the telephone operators whose office is located just across the street. She heard a noise but thought it was an automobile passing and did not take any notice. She later saw a light, however, which frightened her and she at once stopped to the window and saw the buildings burning. No time was lost in notifying the people but as there is no fire department at Beaver, the fire was not extinguished until the fire having gained a good start before she discovered it.

Pioneer Summoned. Special to The Tribune.

SPRINGVILLE, Oct. 11.—Amos S. Warren, one of Springville's old pioneers, died here at his home at 11 o'clock, of heart failure, after an illness of only a few hours. He was in his usual health and was the last member of the first settlers of Springville. He drove the first ten wagons to pull into this city.
